CYPRUS INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY
REGULATIONS ON PRINCIPLES OF SUMMER TERM*

Cyprus International University Board of Trustees has established these Regulations with the authority given them under article 8, paragraph (a) of the Cyprus International University Principal Regulations.

*Note: This document is translated to English with the aim of helping foreign students to understand the rules on principles of summer term at the Cyprus International University. However, if there is any difference between the Turkish language version of this document and the English language version, the Turkish version shall be applicable.

SECTION ONE
General Provisions

Definitions

1. Unless otherwise defined in these Regulations,
"CIU", shall refer to Cyprus International University;
"Summer Term", shall refer to the term which covers months of summer break, outside two terms of an academic year.

Scope

2. These Regulations shall cover principles concerning to registration, administration, examination, achievement, and evaluation concerning courses to be held during summer terms at CIU.

Aim

3. The purposes of summer term are as follows:

(1) To employ educational facilities of the University during summer months,

(2) To facilitate a regularization by offering certain courses also during the summer for those students who have not followed curriculum courses progressively, and to eliminate the build-up in the number of students registering at departments and thus to improve the efficacy of education.

SECTION TWO
Principles Concerning Education During The Summer Term

Duration

4. Summer term shall take place in the period between the spring and fall terms. During this period the maximum duration of courses shall be 8 weeks. This duration shall also cover the summer term final examinations. Total teaching hours for a course offered during the summer term shall be the same as those valid for the same course when it is offered during a fall or spring term. Dates for the start and the end of the summer term shall be indicated in the University Academic Calendar.

Summer Term Courses and Registration

5. (1) Courses offered during spring or fall term in academic programs at the University may also be offered during the summer term.

(2) Students wishing to take courses during a summer term shall pre-register their summer courses during the period which is to be determined by the Rector's Office to that effect.

(3) In order for a given course to be offered during the summer term, a minimum number of students, to be determined by the Rector's Office, must have pre-registered that course.

(4) Registration of summer courses shall be finalized in accordance with the provisions of CIU Regulations On Principles of Associate Degree Program and Undergraduate Education, Examination and Assessment.

(5) During a summer term, a student may follow courses with a maximum of 10 credits in total. However, in those instances where a student may qualify to graduate consequent to courses which they are to follow during a summer term, the student may follow courses with a maximum of 12 credits in total.

(6) When registering courses for a summer term, a student shall prioritize those courses where they have received the grade D-, F, NA, W or U, provided that such courses are to be offered during the summer term.

(7) Adding and dropping courses, or withdrawal from courses shall not be applicable during a summer term.

(8) Courses which it is probable to offer during a Summer Term shall be announced by the Rector's Office at least 4 weeks prior to the beginning of the summer term.

Fees

6. The per course or per credit fee that students are to pay for Summer Term courses shall be declared by the Rector's Office at the latest 3 weeks prior to the beginning of the Summer Term.

Principles Pertaining to Examinations

7. During a Summer Term, examinations shall be organized in accordance with principles indicated in the CIU Regulations On Principles of Associate Degree Program and Undergraduate Education, Examination and Assessment.

Grading During Summer Term

(1) The final grades that students are to be issued at the end of a Summer Term for followed courses shall be determined in accordance with principles indicated in the CIU Regulations On Principles of Associate Degree Program and Undergraduate Education, Examination and Assessment.

(2) Courses followed by a student during a Summer Term shall be indicated separately on their transcript under the heading of "Summer Term".

(3) Achievement obtained by a student during a summer term shall be taken into account when computing the student's cumulative grade point average. However, a Summer Term shall not be treated as an actual term (semester).

(4) The Summer Term shall not be considered as the "final two semesters" in the context of Additional Examination under article 18 of the CIU Regulations On Principles of Associate Degree Program and Undergraduate Education, Examination and Assessment. In those instances where it is understood that a student will qualify to graduate at the end of a summer term if they are accorded the right to take a Graduation Makeup examination in no more than two courses which the student followed during the summer term, or two courses which they followed not earlier than two semesters ago, the student may be accorded, with a decision of the concerned department/school, the right to take Graduation Makeup examination in such courses.

(5) In those instances where a student is able to achieve, at the end of a summer term, a CGPA which surpasses the limits foreseen under paragraphs (e) and (f) of article 17 of the CIU Regulations On Principles of Associate Degree Program and Undergraduate Education, Examination and Assessment, students may be allowed to register new courses in the following semester according to the articles of the relevant regulations. However, when registering courses, the student shall prioritize those courses followed and failed previously (where they have received grades of D-, F, NA, W or U).

Following Courses in an External Institution

9. A student who wishes to follow courses during a summer term may follow such courses at an institution of higher education other than CIU, with the condition that they do so in compliance with the provisions of the CIU Regulations Concerning Courses Followed by CIU Students in an Institution External to CIU.

SECTION THREE
Final Provisions

Legislation Applicable In Instances not Covered

10. Relevant provisions of the CIU Regulations On Principles of Associate Degree Program and Undergraduate Education, Examination and Assessment shall be applicable in those instances which are not indicated to be covered by these Regulations.

Executive Authority

11. These Regulations shall be implemented by the Rector's Office.

Validity

12. These Regulations shall take effect immediately upon the approval of the Cyprus International University Board of Trustees.
